Mr. Bernard followed Mr. Blair, urging the rejection of the petition and addressing himself first to the matter of the seniority of the judges; and here he de-clared that whatever might be the custom. the law was that the court itself should elect its president, and that in his absence the senior judge should preside. Next he contended that the service of Messrs. Lacy and Fauntleroy on the legislative commit-tee was not a disqualification. That was not a judicial decision, and they may have changed their opinion, as had his learned friend here [Mr. Henry], whose name was attacffed to the very report in question.

CORRECTIONS. Colonel Guy replied very briefly to the Attorney-General's behttling of the peti-tion, and passed on to make some corrections.

The Hon, E. C. Burks retired from the bench when the case was heard which was to decide his own status. But when the Bland-county case was heard upon the assurance of the gentleman himself (Mr. Blair) that the Prince-William case was combining to the training and that the conclusive on that point, and that the fourth assignment of error was what they relied upon, Judge Burks sat, and otherwise the court could not have then sat for want of a quorum. Judge Richardson briefly said that he generally had opinions on public questions, and was not slow to pronounce them; but he had formed no judicial opinion here, and did not think any judge ought to be disqualified from sitting because as a member of the General Assembly he had considered a question.

Judge Lewis announced that the motion was rejected.

Smith.

Our people have every right to expect a real musical treat. Taken altogether, the amateurs give a much better presentation of Patience than most of the travelling companies do. In addition to the merit of the performance, the public have here an opportunity to compliment Miss Smith in a manner that will be both sentimental and substantial.

Richmond, Va.:

Gentlemen,—The beautifully sympathetic and rich tones of the Cabinet Grand Piano of Messrs. William Knabe & Co.'s manufacture has given me much pleasure and satisfaction. My rooms have been rendered doubly attractive by your fine interest and great durability of the Knabe pianos make them favorites with all artists, accept my congratulations upon your successful The price of admission has been put at a sale of such standard piano-fortes.

WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW?

As this question is frequently asked, we will aim ply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children techning. It operates like magic—giving sections the like and to more constant. rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do RISE UP and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are DAHY sold and used here. We think Mrs. Wins-The Constitution provides for this special court "to try any cases on the docket of said court (to wit, of this honorable court), in respect to which a majority of the judges thereof may be so situated as to make it inapproper for them to sit on the standard and associate his interests are continuous to make it inapproper for them to sit on the standard and associate his interests are continuous and used here.
